Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 10 May 2015 requesting the following information:

Please can you supply Air Cadet Publication 45 for instructive purposes.

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOI Act).

We have now completed a search for the information you requested and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held. Please find attached the information you requested concerning the Air Cadet Publication 45.

Details of third party personal data (names and contact details) contained in this document have been withheld under Section 40(2) of the FOI Act (information that is personal data whose release is governed by the Data Protection Act).

Please note that, when published, the information is protected by Crown Copyright and there is no automatic right of re-use. You are free to use it for your own personal, private purposes outlined as exceptions to infringement under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act. Any other form of re-use, for example, commercial publication, would require permission in the form of a licence from MOD, and any request for re-use of the source information must be made to MOD's Directorate of Intellectual Property Rights (DIPR). You can make such a request by emailing DIPR-CC@mod.uk.

If you are not satisfied with this response or wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance Team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website,
