

Freedom of Information response

Our reference: IA/00364/13

Under the Freedom of Information Act I would like to know how many people have failed their theory test more than 10 times in the last year. ie/ from the start of 2012 - to now. I would like the same data for the practical test, but only in relation to car drivers.

If this could be broken down into location and gender that would be great.

The table below shows the number of candidates by test centre that have failed their theory or practical test more than 10 times since the start of 2012. Please note that any attempts taken prior to 2012 have not been included in the calculation of the number of drivers failing more than 10 times.
