

Statistical Notice

Breach of Tribunal Statistics Quarterly

Published 12 June 2014

Breach of Tribunal Statistics Quarterly

Introduction

1. This note is to advise users of a breach of figures for the Tribunal Statistics Quarterly Official Statistics publication. The breached data relates to information on the Social Security and Child Support (SSCS) tribunal.

Background

2. The MoJ became aware on the 11th of June 2014 that management information had been obtained by the Guardian and published on their website ahead of their planned publication as Official Statistics on 12th June.
3. We are aware that this covers information up to March 2014 on the following items in relation to Tribunal Statistics Quarterly (TSQ).
 - a. receipts in the SSCS tribunal
4. The Official Statistics publication containing this information can be found at:

www.gov.uk/government/publications/tribunal-statistics-quarterly-january-to-march-2014

Action taken

5. The breach has been reported to National Statistician.
6. We will be providing a breach report to the National Statistician in due course and will update this notice with further details when available.