

SINGLE SOURCE REGULATIONS OFFICE – THE 1st YEAR

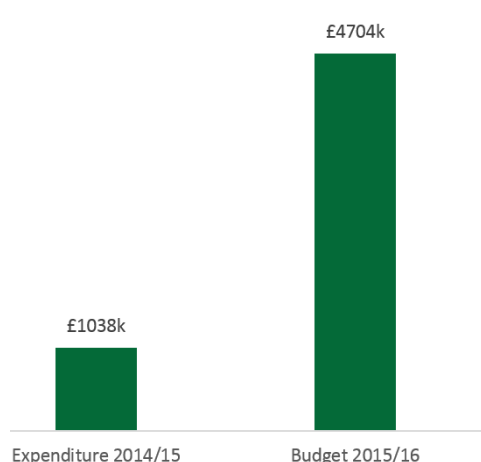

We are the new independent economic regulator of defence procurement in the UK in which there is no competition. Our principal aim is to ensure that:

- good value for money is obtained for the UK taxpayer on defence single source contracts; and
- the defence industry is paid a fair and reasonable price.

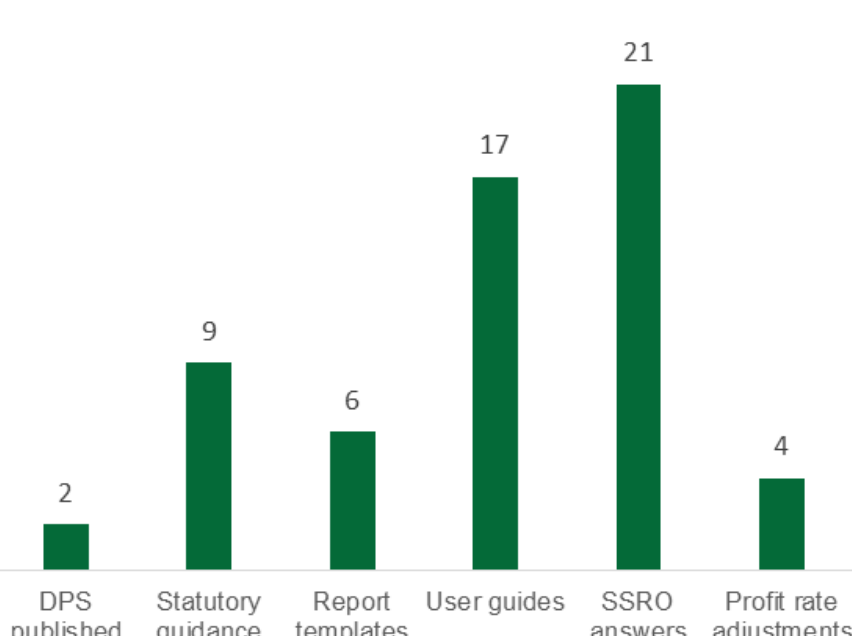

The Single Source Regulations Office (SSRO) began work on 14 July 2014. We have established the organisation and are now ready for business.

This infographic details the SSRO's major developments, trends and achievements from its first year.
