

Be SunSmart.

See beyond the tan

From 8 April 2011, it is an offence to allow people under the age of 18 to use sunbeds in commercial premises in England.

Every time you use a sunbed you damage your skin. This damage ages the skin causing wrinkles to appear and can lead to skin cancer. Using a sunbed once or more a month can increase the risk of skin cancer by more than half.

www.sunsmart.org.uk

CANCER RESEARCH UK

