
From:
Sent: 14 May 2013 16:24
To: Pubs Consultation Responses

How about a public apology for the 1984 Beer Orders and MMC orders driving brewery businesses who were very large employers and payers of UK tax into the hands of foreign owners who have out sourced jobs abroad and destroyed many thousands of UK jobs.

The side effect was also the creation of pub companies who are now even larger monopolies than the breweries ever were, and that are now in thrall to the banks for the loans which they used to create themselves out of thin air.

This email was received from the INTERNET.

Communications via the GSi may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.
