

From:
Sent: 04 May 2013 00:21
To: Pubs Consultation Responses
Subject: Pubcos reform

437.

This needs to happen so tenants/landlords in pubs are treated fairly and give them the right to speak up for change and run there pubs the way that suits the community not the brewery.

This would also give the people who are thinking of joining pub chains as a career would have clear and concise information to hand, making extra jobs in the future and maybe see the reopening of closed down and derelict public houses.

This email was received from the INTERNET.

Communications via the GSi may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.
