

---

From:
Sent: 04 May 2013 11:43
To: Pubs Consultation Responses
Subject: PubCo regulation

Dear Sirs,

I am writing as an English man who goes to his local pub 2 to 4 times a week.
I consider pubs to be an essential part of British life and the combined effect of greedy breweries and extra taxes is killing this part of our national way of life.
Please implement some control over the PubCos to help pub landlords, tenants or whatever make a reasonable living from providing this very valuable service to British life.

Thankyou

-----
This email was received from the INTERNET.

Communications via the GSI may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.
-----