Thank you for your email of 7 July where you requested the following information:

"A list of the Royal Military Police units (see a full list here) the contractors G4S Care & Justice Ltd. are providing civilian investigation support teams to, under contract 2011/S 46-075811 awarded January 2012 (contract award attached).

The number of G4S Care & Justice Ltd. workers stationed at each individual Royal Military Police unit, employed under contract 2011/S 46-075811 awarded January 2012 by the Ministry of Defence to G4S Care & Justice Ltd (contract award attached).

The total number of workers provided by G4S Care & Justice Ltd to the Ministry of Defence, under the contract 2011/S 46-075811 awarded January 2012 (a link to the document is here)

How many G4S Care & Justice Ltd contractors are currently assigned to the Iraq Historic Allegations Team?"

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held. The information you requested is attached.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by copyright. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including for private study and non-commercial research, and for any other purpose authorised by an exception in current copyright law. Documents (except photographs) can be also used in the UK without requiring permission for the purposes of news reporting. Any other reuse, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder.

Most documents supplied by the Ministry of Defence will have been produced within government and will be Crown Copyright. If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Deputy Chief Information Officer, 2nd Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end. Providing the applicant with all the information requested.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.

Yours sincerely,
M.
