Dear [REDACTED],

Request for Information

Thank you for your email of 26 October 2015. You asked:

I wish to know how many individual camouflage pattern were produced for the Personal Equipment and Common Operational Clothing (PECOC) trials which took place between 2007-2008, and if possible their designations to identify them.

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD), and I can confirm that all of the information in scope of your request is held.

Between 1 January 2007 and 31 December 2008 the trials that took place were building a knowledge base of colours, spectral reflectance and luminance data using visual assessment and computer modelling. 20 patterns were used which are identified in the table below:

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

DE&S Secretariat
