Subject: Enterprise Inns - Feedback

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am a new tenant of an Enterprise Inn in call ed

My business partner and I set up an new business in this year and we chose Enterprise as they had a wide range of business models available to us. Whilst we funded a complete internal renovation, Enterprise have carried out awn extensive amount of building works outside.

Without the backing from Enterprise I would have been unable to setup my business. Whilst it is true that drink supply prices may be higher than purchasing directly from the brewery, they have given me a reasonable rent charge. We make our profit from food and non beer drinks so we knew what we were signing up for and it works well for us.

Enterprise and our regional manager,, have been extremely helpful throughout the process and the UK now has another small business which will be turning over approximately £0.5M and employing 7 or 8 members of staff.

Enterprise are an ethical organisation and I would recommend them to other aspiring business startups.

Kind Regards

Publican -
