New and emerging centres as part of the Rape Crisis Commitment

In 2010, the coalition government committed to “consider how to use proceeds from the Victim Surcharge to deliver up to fifteen new rape crisis centres, and give existing rape crisis centres stable, long-term funding”. The commitment to improve funding for rape support centres sits within the cross-government strategy on violence against women and girls.

To date, thirteen new and emerging centres have been established through this commitment and £300k has been set aside from the Rape Support Fund to establish a further two centres during 2014/15.

Our most recent centres to open, in Central Lancashire, Reading, Lincolnshire and Bristol, will continue to receive funding as part of this commitment up until March 2016.
