Dear XXXXXXXX,

Thank you for your correspondence dated 16 June 2010 which has been considered to be a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Your request has been passed to my department and I have been asked to respond.

You requested the following information:

“I have been tasked by the Merseyside Probation Trust to better develop the way we manage Service or ex-Service personnel who offend and are given a custodial or community sentence. As part of this project, I need to build a set of statistics and would greatly appreciate if you could let me know what the annual recruitment figures are for the Merseyside area. If this could be broken down into figures for the Army, RN, RAF and RM’s that would be very useful.”

Unfortunately, the information is not stored in the format requested. However, in order to give an indication of the number of people that may have been recruited from the Merseyside area we have compiled recruitment statistics from the Army Career Information Offices (ACIO) and Armed Forces Career Offices (AFCO) in the North West in the tables below. This information will not provide a comprehensive picture of the recruitment of individuals from Merseyside as it does not include those who may have chosen to join through AFCO’s elsewhere or through other means, such as the internet.

Royal Navy, Royal Marines and Army Officer recruitment figures are not provided as these individuals tend to be recruited through a wider variety of means.

Royal Navy Ratings & Royal Marines Other Ranks
Figures include transfers and re-entrants, but exclude entrants to the Maritime Reserves.	2009
AFCO Liverpool (RN)	188
Royal Navy St Helens	57
TOTAL	245

Army – Other Ranks
(Financial Years)	2008/2009	2009/2010
ACIO Birkenhead	106	89
ACIO Lancaster	97	80
AFCO Liverpool	209	147
TOTAL	412	316

Royal Air Force – Officers & Airmen
	2009
AFCO Liverpool (RAF)	248
TOTAL	248

I hope you find this information helpful.

Yours sincerely

You can find details on the arrangements for re-using Crown Copyright from the Office of Public Sector Information at: <http://www.opsi.gov.uk/click-use/index.htm>.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non Crown Copyright) information.

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the Freedom of Information Act, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless exempt. The MOD therefore will be simultaneously posting the information you requested, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context, in our online FOI Disclosure Log at <http://www.foi.mod.uk>.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Head of Corporate Information, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.
