

fined £3,000 for fixing notices to lamp posts as part of a council clamp-down against illegal street signs.

Bromley magistrates imposed the fine on Laing Homes dered owner Lee Leighton to Ltd for putting up notices around the Bromley and Beckenham areas.

The signs had directed customers to Laing Homes' devel- Centre - which is also on the opment in South Eden Park Mottingham Road - was told to Road.

Chairman of Bromley's environmental services commit- council's order. tee Martin Lockwood said: "The level of these fines show The and the first strengthere

by COURT REPORTER

the seriousness for this offence.

In April the News Shopper reported how the council orremove a sign from outside his restaurant in Mottingham they take me to court. Road, Mottingham

A fortnight later the Tyre remove its sign.

Bromley's highway and Lain pavements section leader . able for comment. in the 100

Peter Turvey said: "If you let some go up, the streets will be covered with signs. We are trying to keep the borough clean and tidy."

. Tyre Centre co-director Raymond Burkett said: "I am standing by my guns even if It's just amazing. They have got nothing better to do with their time.

The council talks about trying to breathe new life into Both firms have ignored the business and then they do

Laing Homes were unavail-

BROMLEY PRESS ARTICLE - FIRM INCURS HEAVY PENALTY FOR NOTICE, NEWS SHOPPER NEWSPAPER, 1999