

Annex A

our ref : IA/00930/11

May I also ask for a copy of the initial communication that was made by the DSA to the ICO on the filming or recording of driving tests that led to this response from the Information Commissioner (dated 15th May 2008)?

Please find at Annex B a copy of the initial communication that was made by DSA to the ICO on the filming or recording of driving tests that led to response from the Information Commissioner dated 15th May 2008 that was provide to you in response to your previous request (our ref. IA/00869/11).

Please note that some junior staff names have been removed from Annex B as this is classified as personal data and it would not be fair to the individuals concerned to release this information. These names are exempt from release under section 40(2) (personal information) and a full copy of this exemption is attached at Annex C. The redactions at Annex B are marked as 'Redacted Section 40 (2)'.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by copyright. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including for private study and non-commercial research, and for any other purpose authorised by an exception in current copyright law. Documents (except photographs) can be also used in the UK without requiring permission for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder.

Most documents supplied by the Driving Standards Agency will be protected by Crown Copyright. Most Crown copyright information can be re-used under the Open Government Licence (<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government-licence/>). For information about the OGL and about re-using Crown Copyright information please see The National Archives website - <http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/information-management/uk-gov-licensing-framework.htm> .

Copyright in other documents may rest with a third party. For information about obtaining permission from a third party see the Intellectual Property Office's website at www.ipo.gov.uk.