

Since the Decent Homes programme began in 2001, Sandwell Metropolitan Council has received £291,300,000 in ALMO Supported Capital Expenditure (SCE) and £22,739,000 Local Authority Subsidy Capital Expenditure (LASCE) to undertake a Decent Homes investment programme as set out below.

SCE		LASCE
2005/06	8,800,000	2004-05	6,628,000
2006/07	53,800,000	2005-06	6,866,000
2007/08	71,400,000	2006-07	1,800,000
2008/09	66,600,000	2007-08	1,800,000
2009/10	51,583,910	2008-09	1,910,000
2010/11	39,116,090	2009-10	1,967,000
		2010-11	1,768,000

Sandwell Council also received the following Major Repairs Allowance (MRA) funding:

MRA
2001-02	19,767,952
2002-03	18,707,652
2003-04	18,921,554
2004-05	18,576,230
2005-06	18,744,227
2006-07	17,571,393
2007-08	17,627,260
2008-09	18,053,016
2009-10	18,089,334
2010-11	18,345,492

MRA is however not part of the Decent Homes programme and is allocated as part of the HRA subsidy system to enable local authorities to maintain their stock.

Future available resources for Sandwell Council and funding allocations for Departmental programmes will be dependent on the overall funding available following the outcome of the next Spending Review.
