2. Can i have a breakdown of the number of vocational driving tests ( LGV, PCV, B+E) that have been conducted in the UK for each test centre please?

Attached at annexes B, C and D are details of vocational tests conducted and passed at each test centre in Great Britain for the 2010/11 financial year. We do not hold details of tests conducted in Northern Ireland and if you wish this information, you can submit an online request at http://www.dvlni.gov.uk/Freedom%20of%20Information/FOI\_form.aspx

We have not provided details of test centres where only one examiner conducted tests. Whilst we hold this information, it is being withheld under section 36(2)(c) on the grounds that its disclosure would prejudice to the effective conduct of public affairs, a view certified by the Minister and then subject to the public interest test as to whether the balance lies in favour of withholding or disclosing the information. We have concluded, applying a presumption in favour of disclosure, and in all the circumstances of the case, the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information.

Annex E of this letter sets out the exemption in full, as well as the factors we have considered when deciding where the public interest lay.
