

Annex A shows the number of current approved work permit applications broken down by nationality and by employer postcode, covering periods June 2003 to December 2005.

Note: this information has been extracted directly from WPUK's database and shows the information as it was input manually. The information has been extracted from a 'live' database and is updated constantly.

WPUK do not hold this information by age or ethnic minority.

Annex B shows approved SAWS applications broken down by nationality and by employer postcode, covering periods 1 January 2004 to 31 December 2005. The attached table shows approved applications for the specified postcodes only. Postcode area CB2, for example, does not include information on approved applications for pre-May 2004 because applications were not approved during the specified period.

The Annexes do not include applications under the Highly Skilled Migrant Programme (HSMP) or other immigration categories. Such applications are made directly by the applicant and not by the employer, WPUK therefore do not hold information on the geographical spread of migrants in these categories.

Note: work permits are issued to employers to fill a specific vacancy with a worker from outside the European Economic Area (EEA), and can be issued for up to 5 years, after which the worker can apply for Indefinite Leave to Remain. Where a work permit is granted for, say, 5 years, the work permit will be recorded on the WPUK system as "current" for that time period. However, there are a number of circumstances under which the overseas national may not currently be working at that employer:

- The migrant worker decided not to take up the job offer
- The migrant worker was approved a work permit but was refused Entry Clearance (to enter the UK from overseas) or Leave to Remain (in the UK)
- The migrant worker has left the employment and returned home
- The migrant worker has changed jobs to another UK employer
