

1. Please could you provide me with the number of driving test passes between 1st January 2012 and 31st July 2012 broken down by car manufacturer and model name?

2. Can you also provide a list of driving test failures for the same period?

The information you have requested is not held by DSA because it is not captured as part of administering the practical driving test.

The form which DSA Driving Examiners use to capture data relating to candidates' driving tests is the DL25, a blank electronic copy of which is available on the following link:
