I would like to request the pass rate of all individuals that have taken a practical test at Thornbury test centre, Bradford. Please could I have a breakdown of each of the examiner's results (in an anonymised format), dating back to the last 12 months?

Thornbury driving test centre opened on 18 October 2010 so we have supplied the requested information from this date up to when we have fully captured and recorded test results, which is 28 February 2011.

The table below shows pass and fail rates for all examiners who have conducted car practical tests at Thornbury between 18 October 2010 and 28 February 2011. This information is provided in an anonymised format and is correct as of 4 May 2011. We have amalgamated the results of any examiner that has conducted eight or less tests; as it is highly likely that these will be visiting examiners who are not permanently based at Thornbury.
