

Is it possible to gain the statistics for the Driver Certificate of Professional (CPC) training hours that have been completed so far for the UK, as we are looking to run a feature/article on this topic in a magazine?

Between 10 September 2008 and 31 May 2011, there were 5,255,663 Driver CPC periodic training hours recorded on our Recording and Evidencing (R&E) system.

Please note that:

- we are reliant on training bodies uploading their training information on to our R&E system
- the figure above includes training completed in Great Britain and Northern Ireland
