

Raw logs

All raw well logs recorded from all data acquisition passes in both open and cased-hole sections, whether acquired by wireline, MWD methods or associated surface systems must be lodged with CDA. The data should comply with normal industry data quality standards. Membership of CDA allows all obligations relating to those wells to be discharged through CDA. The CDA obligation to the DECC is to deliver raw log data to DECC in DLIS, LIS or LAS format.