

1) The UK practical test pass rates for the period January to June 2011 broken down by individual test centres and by car, bike, lorry and bus. I would like to know the pass rate as a percentage and also the total number of practical tests taken at each centre in this time broken down as above.

You can find the number of car and bike practical tests conducted and the pass rate for the period January to June 2011 broken down by test centre online at

<http://www.dft.gov.uk/statistics/series/driving-test/>

We have provided you with the number of lorry and bus practical tests conducted and passed for the period January to June 2011 broken down by test centre at Annex B.

Please note that we are responsible for the driving test in Great Britain. The Driver and Vehicle Agency (DVA) is responsible for the driving test in Northern Ireland; you can find contact details for the DVA online at
