Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Disability Living Allowance Reform – Additional Evidence

Please find enclosed additional evidence for the Ideal for All response to the Disability Living Allowance Reform Consultation. The original response was sent to you on 11th February.

Ideal for All are a user-led disability charity based in [REDACTED]. Our consultation event for local people was held on Monday 7th February at the [REDACTED] Council Chamber, which was attended by over 225 people. We arranged this event in partnership with the [REDACTED] Regional Disability Network who will make their own regional response. The questions answered are those from the Easy Read consultation document.

The documents enclosed are individual responses to questions which attendees at our event answered independently – please note the questions are the same but the numbering different from the Easy Read consultation document.

The questions responded to are:

- 6B
- 11
- 15
- 18

Any queries please contact Simon Ware on 0121 558 5555.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]

All relate to extra costs

2. What extra things do disabled people need to spend money on?

This will include things that assist with additional needs i.e. mobility and care. An example would be transport costs.

- Wheel chair users find using public transport very difficult, therefore taxi costs or petrol costs, especially with the rising cost of fuel.
- Seating for showering.
- To access Sport e.g. football, basket ball, a specialist wheelchair needs to be purchased at the cost of approx £1,600.
- Hoists for wheelchairs in cars
- Stairlifts
- Ramps for access.
- Extra clothing for those that are incontinent and sheets.
- Washing and Tumble drying costs of soiled clothing.

2. What extra things do disabled people need to spend money on?

This will include things that assist with additional needs i.e. mobility and care. An example would be transport costs.

For a person living with a disability everything is a lot more expensive. For e.g. a wheelchair user will need a bigger taxi for transportation costing twice as much. They would probably not be able to use public transport. Many things have to be tailor made for someone with a disability, so everything will cost a lot of money.

Adults with learning disabilities often require adaptations to their home in order to simplify independent living such as electronic devices that talk to you to remind you to lock your front door every time you go out to devices that tell you when your kettle is full. Detectors for gas or other devices in the home in order to make it a safe place are just a few of the things. Once you get out into the community it becomes more complex but there are still things that can be done such as Personal Assistant support for shopping.

Aids to help with Communication, e.g. Symbols etc.
Parking ^{costs} for hospital ^{visits} costs.

As a family we attend the same dentist. However, our disabled child attends a dentist who works with children with special needs. This means a separate journey, resulting in extra car costs for this.

Parents having to 'buy ^{holidays} ~~holidays~~' from company so they have enough annual ^{leave} ~~time~~ for hospital appointments etc.

need to buy extra items. Child has ^{obsession} obsession with plasters. So if she bumps herself she wants a plaster. We can't explain to her that she doesn't need one.

2. What extra things do disabled people need to spend money on?

This will include things that assist with additional needs i.e. mobility and care. An example would be transport costs.

- Paying to access disability groups & support groups
- Additional car mileage to let our child experience activities they can participate in (ie disabled horse riding)
- We use a car everywhere as our child finds using public transport difficult
- Buying communication aids - PECS software & symbols
- Buying a touch screen monitor (£400+) as our child cannot use a mouse.
- Bed. Special bed as our child jumps on the bed & breaks it
- ~~Special~~ Special Baths / videos - Sign language bath / videos
- Installed a wet room to give our child some independence - This prevented the risk of the bathroom being flooded as our child turns on taps and blocks plugholes
- Cost of replacing items due to breakages as our child is unaware of danger etc.

- ① CERTAIN TYPES OF (OFTEN EXPENSIVE) FOODS TO AID CONDITIONS. THESE COSTS ARE HIGH OFTEN BECAUSE THEY ARE NOT EASILY OBTAINED LOCALLY. (EQUALLY EXPENSIVE FOR FOOD INTOLERANCES)
- ② COSTS OF BUYING A CAR IF MOBILITY NOT IMPAIRED (SO NO DLA PAYABLE) BUT CONDITION(S) MEAN THAT USER HAS VERY SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS IN ORDER TO STILL DRIVE.
- ③ NOT JUST CARE BUT HELP IN LIVING IN A PROPERTY RATHER THAN A CARE HOME. ALL THE NORMAL HOMEHOLD JOBS WHICH PEOPLE DO DAILY. CHANGING BEDS/CURTAINS SPRING CLEANING ETC.
- ④ #SUITABLE SELF-CATERING HOLIDAY PROPERTIES WITH ADAPTATIONS ARE USUALLY MUCH DEARER TO RENT BECAUSE THEY ARE LARGER. AS A COUPLE WE USED TO HAVE PLACES SUITABLE FOR 2. WE STILL WISH TO HOLIDAY ALONE BUT HAVE TO PAY FOR A LARGER PLACE TO GET THE FACILITIES
- ⑤ WE HAVE TO THINK/BOOK A PLAN EARLY SO WE CANNOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF LAST MINUTE BARGAINING PRICES FOR HOLIDAYS ETC

MANY CANNOT GO ON BUSES THEREFORE THE NEED ARISES TO USE TAXI'S.

DISABLED PEOPLE VERY OFTEN NEED SMALL DIY JOBS CARRIED OUT AROUND THE HOUSE

SOMETIMES GRANTS ARE NOT AVAILABLE FOR SHOWERS ETC., THEY HAVE TO PAY FOR THEM.

DEAF PEOPLE NEED SPECIALIST EQUIPMENT NOT ALWAYS ON THE NHS THIS ALSO APPLIES TO DISABLED PEOPLE WITH SIGHT PROBLEMS.

PEOPLE WITH LEARNING DIFFICULTIES VERY OFTEN NEED SPECIALISED CARE THEY NEED TO BE LOOKED AFTER 24/7.

BUYING SPECIAL SHOES AND CLOTHES BECAUSE SOMETIMES YOU CANNOT GET THEM TO FIT OR BECAUSE OF YOUR DISABILITY YOU NEED TO BUY NEW ONES MORE OFTEN. ALSO SOME PEOPLE CANNOT DO UP BUTTONS OR TIE SHOE LACES SO THEY NEED TO BUY SPECIALISED CLOTHS.

If we didn't have the car we can't take taxi she won't go in them nor public transport and even with our car you have to wait until she is ready she don't like changes so you have to keep to the same routine or things she is using. It is a lot to get taxi and she won't get in them it would cost so much

2. What extra things do disabled people need to spend money on?

This will include things that assist with additional needs i.e. mobility and care. An example would be transport costs.

When you are not able to get about it is very difficult it costs so much for taxi's because public transport is not suitable, overcrowding, steps, peoples attitudes. When you are in a wheel chair you have to have a taxi that is adapted. For a wheel chair which costs more and the cost is very steep. The costs are going up more the cost of petrol doesn't help so the taxi rents put that expense on to the sick and vulnerable. so we suffer all the time all the costs fall on us Not only that I am sick and my daughter is so it is very difficult ~~for~~ for us to get about we need carers to help us we couldn't manage without them.

jWhen I became disabled I discovered that you need to have deep pockets i.e. rich , As most things you need to allow you to function costs.

Thanks to places like the Independent living centre We are able to get help with chairs, and some aids and even bathrooms , mind you do have to pay towards them.

Getting About.

I don't know what life would be like without our motabilty car. But I do have an idea what it would be like without it , we would not be able to have out days. Doing the shopping would become a nightmare, not only for me but my wife.

I would lose the independents that I have found through my car. Just being able to collect my drugs from the chemist, take myself to the doctors,

Public transport for me is out for many reasons, 1 my size, 2 being jerked about dose me not do me any good health wise, and various other reasons.

With out the money the motabilty part DLA payment to fund our car , we could never afford to run one, and I know our lives would become harder and more depressing and my health would suffer to boot.

care

. Thankfully I have a loving caring wife to care for me, but for people that don't, the cost of care, and having to set it up must be scary for some and the thought of losing that must be frightening for people.
