

Rec'd
14/2/11

Consultation about changing Disability Living Allowance to a new benefit

Tell us what you think

December 2010

Easy Read

DWP

Department for Work and Pensions

Questions

Question 1

What things stop disabled people joining in with other people and living full, active and independent lives?

PEOPLE Being Bullied

I should get my own money to my self

Not being able to read or write properly stops people being able to join in when everything is sent out or advertised in writing.

Question 2

What parts of Disability Living Allowance do you think we should keep?

PEOPLE should get all of it Because it helps ~~PEOPLE~~ PEOPLE to get a round and care for them

Question 3

What extra things do disabled people need to spend money on?

SEATBELT TAXIS POLICE Fire ambulance Heating larger bills

Question 4

The new benefit will have 2 amounts for each of the 2 parts of the benefit. Do you think this will make the benefit easier to understand and also easier for us to run?

Do you think just having the 2 amounts for each part will cause any problems?

I THINK we should be allowed to get more ~~money~~ MONEY to help us live

Question 5

Do you think some health conditions or disabilities should allow people to get an amount of the benefit automatically?

Or do you think that all claims should be based on the needs of the person asking for the benefit?

They should get what they are ~~entitled~~ entitled to

People who have fits, people who have ill health such as cancer

Question 6

How can we make sure that disabled people who most need the new benefit can get it?

What activities or actions are the most important to live an independent life?

They should get it put in the Bank each week

Adverts on the T.V or radio: would help people know about it that can't read.

Question 7

How can we make sure that the new benefit takes into account the way a person's health condition can change?

Make Shure That Some one get To The Bank ore The POSTOFFICE on time. Make it easier for the DWP to make changes to the benefit

Question 8

When a person makes a claim to the new benefit, should we take account of any aids or adaptations that they use?

What aids and adaptations should we take into account?

Should we only take aids and adaptations into account if the person already uses them? Or should we take aids and adaptations into account that a person could use and get hold of easily?

~~NO~~
Yes they should take account of aids needs as this is also help

Question 9

How could we make the way a person asks for benefit better.
For example

- How could we make the claim form easier to fill in?
- How could we tell people about the new benefit so that they know what the benefit is for and who is likely to get the benefit?

Someone should go with them and make sure they get the right one Advertise on the TV & radio

Question 10

Who are the best people to tell us about the needs of the person asking for benefit?

What information will we need to make it clear what the person can and cannot do?

Some one that's good and Better social services
CAB
Doctors, consultants

Question 11

An important part of the new benefit may be talking face to face with an independent person about how well you can do the things you need to do to take part in everyday life.

What good things and bad things may this bring?

Is there any time when it would not be right to say that a person had to meet an independent person face to face, either in the person's own home or somewhere else?

Make sure the person is able to identify themselves properly if going to a persons home.
It would help with forms for people who can't read or write well.

Question 12

What should we use to decide how often we should look at a claim again and check it?

Should the way we look at a claim again depend on the needs of the person and their health condition or disability?

I think it should be checked every two years to see if things have changed

Question 13

The new benefit will be easier for people to understand, so we will expect people to tell us when things change in their lives.

How can we get people to tell us about the changes in their lives?

Make this easier to do over the phone & not always filling in forms

Question 14

What types of help and advice are people who will ask for the new benefit likely to need?

Would it help if we told people to get help and advice and where to get it from?

Yes

Question 15

How do disabled people pay for their aids and adaptations at the moment?

Should disabled people be allowed to use the new benefit to pay for a one-off cost?

I don't know.

Question 16

What are the main differences we should think about when we are dealing with claims for children instead of adults?

I think children should get more so that they can have a better life & more chances

Question 17

How important or useful has Disability Living Allowance been in getting people to use other services or to get other benefits?

What can we do to make things better?

At the moment people who get Disability Living Allowance automatically get help from other benefits and services, like the Blue Badge scheme and the Warm Front scheme.

What would it mean to disabled people if they did not automatically get help from these other benefits or services?

if you didn't get it automatically it would make things harder for disabled people

Question 18

What information about the disabled person could we share with other services or government departments to stop the disabled person having to tell lots of people the same thing?

I think that information should be shared

Question 19

How would our ideas for the new benefit affect different equality groups? For example, the equality groups looking at disability, age, race, gender, sexual orientation and religion and belief.

Sexual orientation

This is about whether a person is

- heterosexual – sexually attracted to people of the other sex.
- lesbian – a woman who is sexually attracted to women.
- gay – a man who is sexually attracted to men.
- bisexual – sexually attracted to men and women.
- asexual – not sexually attracted to men or women

I don't think it ~~will~~ would affect them

Question 20

Is there anything else you would like to tell us about our plans?