

Regional breakdown of Government measures in Autumn Statement 2012

NORTHERN IRELAND

- 8,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 615,000 more to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 1.1 million motor vehicles in Northern Ireland, saving a typical driver £40 a year.
- As a result of spending decisions at the Autumn Statement the Northern Ireland Executive will benefit from an additional £132m of capital spending.
- £32 million research partnership for the Queen's University Belfast Institute of Health Science.
- Derry/Londonderry to be in the second wave of super-connected cities.
- Business support measures will benefit 114,000 small and medium enterprises in Northern Ireland.
- The Northern Ireland Executive will be able to defer £50 million of borrowing through the Reinvestment and Reform Initiative from 2012-13 to 2014-15 to help support investment in the A5 road.
- The Carbon Price Floor exemption will level the playing field with competitors in the Republic of Ireland.

NORTH EAST

- 10,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 961,000 to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 1.27 million motor vehicles in the North East, saving a typical driver £40 a year.
- £64 million upgrade on the A1 at Lobley Hill, Gateshead.
- £61 million to build over 3,300 new homes for affordable rent.
- £17 million to return over 1500 empty homes to use in the North East and Yorkshire.
- Government will provide a grant for councils that freeze council tax in 2013-14.
- Business support measures will benefit 130,000 small and medium enterprises in the North East.

NORTH WEST

- 27,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 2.6 million to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 3.6 million motor vehicles in the North West, saving a typical motorist £40 a year.
- £181 million to build over 9,400 new homes for affordable rent.
- £49 million to return over 3,000 empty homes to use.
- £34 million investment in partnership between University of Liverpool and Unilever.
- £38 million to develop the Manchester Cancer Research Centre.
- Salford to be in the second wave of super-connected cities.
- Government will provide a grant for councils that freeze council tax in 2013-14.
- Business support measures will benefit 431,000 small and medium enterprises in the North West.

SCOTLAND

- 21,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 2.2 million to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 2.7 million motor vehicles in Scotland, saving a typical driver £40 a year.
- As a result of spending decisions at the Autumn Statement the Scottish Government will benefit from an additional £394m of capital spending.
- £38 million research partnership at the University of Dundee.
- Perth and Aberdeen to be in the second wave of super-connected cities.
- Business support measures will benefit 319,000 small and medium enterprises in Scotland.
- As announced earlier this year, the Government is bringing forward new allowances for brown-field sites (oil) and shallow-water gas fields that will support investment and jobs.

YORKSHIRE AND HUMBER

- 22,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 1.9 to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 2.7 million motor vehicles in Yorkshire and the Humber, saving a typical motorist £40 a year.
- £104 million to build over 5,000 new homes for affordable rent.
- £18 million to return over 1500 empty homes to use in Yorkshire and the North East.
- £314 million upgrade on the A1 between Leeming and Barton.
- A160/180 at Immingham to be piloted as an accelerated road scheme.
- York to be in the second wave of super-connected cities.
- Government will provide a grant for councils that freeze council tax in 2013-14.
- Business support measures will benefit 345,000 small and medium enterprises in Yorkshire and the Humber.

WEST MIDLANDS

- 22,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 2 million to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 3.5 million motor vehicles in the West Midlands, saving a typical motorist £40 a year.
- £10 million to reduce congestion at J12 of the M40.
- £190 million to build over 9,000 new homes for affordable rent.
- £17 million to return over 1300 empty homes to use across the Midlands.
- £60 million to fund research partnership between University of Birmingham and Rolls-Royce.
- £92 million to fund a new National Automotive Innovation Campus at University of Warwick.
- Coventry to be in the second wave of super-connected cities.
- Government will provide a grant for councils that freeze council tax in 2013-14.
- Business support measures will benefit 368,000 small and medium enterprises in the West Midlands.

EAST MIDLANDS

- 17,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 1.8 million to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 2.7 million vehicles in the East Midlands, saving a typical motorist £40 a year.
- £72 million to build over 4,000 new homes for affordable rent.
- £16.1 million to return over 1300 empty homes to use.
- Managed motorway pilot between the Mansfield and Sheffield on the M1.
- £34 million investment in partnership between University of Nottingham and GlaxoSmithKline.
- Government will provide a grant for councils that freeze council tax in 2013-14.
- Business support measures will benefit 325,000 small and medium enterprises in the East Midlands.
- A site near East Kettering may be eligible for Government funding to support large housing sites (more than 5000 homes).

WALES

- 13,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 1.1 million to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 1.8 million motor vehicles in Wales, saving a typical motorist £40 a year.
- As a result of spending decisions at the Autumn Statement the Welsh Government will benefit from an additional £227m of capital spending.
- £38 million research partnership for the Swansea University Energy Safety Research Institute
- Newport to be in the second wave of super-connected cities.
- Business support measures will benefit 193,000 small and medium enterprises in Wales.
- 100 per cent capital allowances for investment in plant and machinery will be made available at designated sites in the Ebbw Vale and Haven Waterway Enterprise Zones, to support investment that could provide more than 1,000 jobs.

EAST OF ENGLAND

- 24,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 2.3 million to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 3.6 million motor vehicles in the East of England, saving a typical motorist £40 a year.
- £96 million to build over 8,000 new homes.
- £12.3 million to return over 900 empty homes to use in the East and South East.
- £127 million to link the A5 to the M1 near Houghton Regis.
- Cambridge to be in the second wave of super-connected cities.
- Government will provide a grant for councils that freeze council tax in 2013-14.
- Business support measures will benefit 511,000 small and medium enterprises in the East of England.
- Northstowe near Cambridge may be eligible for Government funding to support large housing sites (more than 5000 homes).

SOUTH WEST

- 20,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 2.1 million to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 3.5 million motor vehicles in the South West, saving a typical motorist £40 a year.
- £30 million to upgrade the A30 from a single to a dual carriageway between Temple and Carblake.
- £146 million to build nearly 9,000 new homes.
- £6.5 million to return over 500 empty homes to use.
- £28 million to increase the capacity of the National Composite Centre in Bristol, which brings together entrepreneurs and academics to deliver world-class innovation in the design and rapid manufacture of composite materials.
- Government will provide a grant for councils that freeze council tax in 2013-14.
- Business support measures will benefit 477,000 small and medium enterprises in the South West.

LONDON

- 28,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 3.2 million to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 3 million motor vehicles in London, saving a typical motorist £40 a year.
- The Government will provide a UK Guarantee allowing the Greater London Authority to borrow up to £1 billion from the Public Works Loan Board, at a new preferential rate, to finance the construction of the Northern Line Extension.
- £600 million to build just over 20,000 new affordable rented homes.
- £31.7 million to return over 2,200 empty homes to use.
- £85 million funding for a partnership between UCL and Great Ormond St Hospital.
- £60 million National Research Centre for Structural Integrity to be developed at Brunel University.
- £150 million contribution to a new Imperial College campus near White City.
- Government will provide a grant for councils that freeze council tax in 2013-14.
- Business support measures will benefit 805,000 small and medium enterprises in London.
- Over 250,000 commuters nationally will benefit from the Rail Fare cap.

SOUTH EAST

- 30,000 people to be lifted out of income tax and 3.5 million to pay less income tax as a result of Personal Allowance reforms.
- Cancelling the planned rise in fuel duty in January will reduce running costs for the 5.6 million motor vehicles in the South East, saving a typical motorist £40 a year.
- £150 million to tackle congestion at J30 on the M25.
- £223 million to build over 15,000 affordable rented homes.
- £15 million to return about 960 empty homes to use in the South East and East.
- £170 million to develop new drug and cancer research centres in Oxford.
- £35 million for the development of 5th Generation cellular communications at University of Surrey.
- Brighton and Hove, Oxford and Portsmouth to be in the second wave of super-connected cities.
- Business support measures will benefit 767,000 small and medium enterprises in the South East.
- Government will provide a grant for councils that freeze council tax in 2013-14.
- Managed motorway pilot between the M25 and Farnborough on the M3.
- Over 250,000 commuters nationally will benefit from the Rail Fare cap, on average by £45 a year.

