

Government response to the July consultation on 'Providing Certainty, improving performance' – 27 February 2013

Addendum A: Table showing the tariff triggers (£m) which will be used to determine whether tariff reductions are required<sup>1</sup>

Trigger point (end of the month)	Total	50% total trigger	Biogas	Large commercial biomass	Medium commercial biomass	Small commercial biomass	Large commercial heat pumps	Small commercial heat pumps	Solar thermal
April 2013	£ 97.2 million	£ 48.6 million	£ 18.0 million	£ 34.7 million	£ 20.1 million	£ 22.2 million	£ 4.9 million	£ 43.4 million	£ 4.9 million
July 2013	£ 120.2 million	£ 60.1 million	£ 27.2 million	£ 41.3 million	£ 23.2 million	£ 25.1 million	£ 6.0 million	£ 54.4 million	£ 6.0 million
October 2013	£ 143.3 million	£ 71.6 million	£ 36.3 million	£ 48.0 million	£ 26.3 million	£ 28.0 million	£ 7.2 million	£ 65.5 million	£ 7.2 million
January 2014	£ 166.3 million	£ 83.2 million	£ 45.5 million	£ 54.6 million	£ 29.4 million	£ 30.9 million	£ 8.3 million	£ 76.5 million	£ 8.3 million
April 2014	£ 192.8 million	£ 96.4 million	£ 55.5 million	£ 61.8 million	£ 32.7 million	£ 34.0 million	£ 9.6 million	£ 89.5 million	£ 9.6 million
July 2014	£ 226.1 million	£ 113.1 million	£ 67.5 million	£ 70.2 million	£ 36.2 million	£ 37.3 million	£ 11.3 million	£ 106.7 million	£ 11.3 million
October 2014	£ 259.5 million	£ 129.8 million	£ 79.5 million	£ 78.5 million	£ 39.7 million	£ 40.7 million	£ 13.0 million	£ 123.9 million	£ 13.0 million
January 2015	£ 292.9 million	£ 146.5 million	£ 91.5 million	£ 86.9 million	£ 43.2 million	£ 44.1 million	£ 14.6 million	£ 141.0 million	£ 14.6 million

<sup>1</sup> Regulations which will implement the degression mechanism will contain details of the various triggers. The approval of Parliament is needed before these Regulations can come into effect.