RE: Freedom of Information

Thank you for your follow-up email of 11<sup>h</sup> March 2013 requesting information on all Government Procurement Card (GPC) spend within the Department of Energy and Climate Change (DECC). You specifically asked for expenditure details broken-down by date, each item of expenditure and team for the period 3rd October 2008 to 3rd November 2009.

We are unable to comply fully with your request but I have attached an electronic file detailing procurement card transactions greater than £500 between June and November 2009 which is within the cost limit and consistent with the wider publication of DECC's spending under the government's transparency agenda. Prior to June 2009, DECC held details of GPC information as a mixture of electronic and paper records.

Given the volume of data that would fall under the scope of your request this would involve a significant diversion of resources from a number of teams in identifying and gathering the information, searching, locating and extracting every individual government procurement card transaction (electronic and paper records) and reviewing over 12,000 lines of data by scrutinising transaction details to ensure that they do not contain any classified or personal details before that data could be released.

As previously explained, this activity would also incur a significant cost in excess of the cost limit. Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act makes provision for public authorities to refuse requests for information where the cost of dealing with them would exceed the appropriate limit which, for central government, is set at £600.

Therefore, your request will not be processed further.

Appeal Procedure

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to the department. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
