

BUSINESS STATEMENT

Mr Speaker,

With the progress of business now certain, a formal announcement was made in the other place yesterday evening regarding the arrangements for prorogation. It may be for the convenience of the House if I indicate that I expect Royal Commissioners to attend the other place this afternoon to signify Royal Assent to several bills and to prorogue Parliament until 8th May.

25 April 2013