Information released

The information the Department holds has been provided in the table below.

Some information regarding payment arrangements has been withheld in accordance with Section 40(2) of the FOI Act. Section 40(2) provides an absolute exemption for personal data which then falls to be dealt with under the Data Protection Act. Personal data of third parties can only be disclosed in accordance with the data protection principles. In particular, the first data protection principle requires that disclosure must be fair and lawful and must comply with one of the conditions in Schedule 2 of the Data Protection Act. We do not think that it is fair to release details of the payment arrangements for these individuals and do not think that any of the relevant conditions apply.
