Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your e-mail of 16th May 2011 requesting information, which we have dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. You asked for a list of VIN numbers of approximately 800 vehicles reported as "flood damaged" which has been reported to transport ministries around the EU.

I have spoken to my colleagues within this agency who deal with recalls, and more widely in the Central Department for Transport. No notification has been received in respect of this problem.

A colleague from VOSA's Vehicle Safety Branch has spoken to Peugeot about this matter and has been informed that all affected vehicles were left hand drive vehicles from Italy. Therefore this was not applicable to the UK market.

VOSA does not hold the information that you have requested.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us, quoting reference F0003374.

If you are unhappy with the response provided, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.
