Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Treasury Solicitor's Department ("the Department"):

I refer to the above and the estate of the late Ivy Maud Redman who died on 5th March 1998. Please can you advise the name of the claimant and also the name and contact details of the person dealing with the administration of the estate as I note that it has now been removed from your list of unclaimed estates.

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division ("the Division") under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

As you are aware the Division publishes a list of unclaimed estates which have been recently referred, but not yet administered, and historic cases which have not yet been claimed by entitled relatives. You can find the list at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/statistical-data-sets/unclaimed-estates-list#the-list>

Any estates where the Division no longer has an interest, for example, when a claim to an estate has been admitted, will be removed daily.

Since the information is reasonably accessible to you by other means and it is therefore exemption from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1) (b) of the Act. The name is on the list of unclaimed estates.
