

Hi,

Certainly, I will deal with this.

Public enquires: please drop this email below on CTS for a TOPE reply.

Regards

Dear DCU

Please see below – for TO reply.

Many thanks

Sent: 28 November 2012 19:22

To: Policing Minister

Subject: FW: drinking

Subject: drinking

Dear Sir,

I see that excessive drinking in uk is becoming a problem but instead of using collective punishment on all people who drink by raising the charge on alchohol would it not be better to raise a surcharge on persons admitted to hospital or jail for their excessive drinking payable by the offender.this would discourage people from excess drinking knowing that they may have to pay a large bill at the end of it.

I live and work in germany and if i was admitted to hospital due to over drinking my health insurance would not pay the hospital bill also if the police were involved an on the spot fine would also be forthcoming. i hope you succeed in you endeavours to better the uk

thankyou

UK Parliament Disclaimer:

This e-mail is confidential to the intended recipient. If you have received it in error, please notify the sender and delete it from your system. Any unauthorised use, disclosure, or copying is not permitted. This e-mail has been checked for viruses, but no liability is accepted for any damage caused by any virus transmitted by this e-mail.

This email was received from the INTERNET and scanned by the Government Secure Intranet anti-virus service supplied by Cable&Wireless Worldwide in partnership with MessageLabs. (CCTM Certificate Number 2009/09/0052.) In case of problems, please call your organisation's IT Helpdesk.

Communications via the GSi may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.