Dear Theresa,

As a Conservative party member I am writing to oppose the government's proposal for minimum alcohol pricing.

For the following reasons:

1. It is an additional unnecessary tax on everyone – we all buy supermarket offers on drink at Christmas, Birthdays, BBQs etc
2. It hits the least well-off most
3. It raises no revenue for government – only for supermarkets and other drinks retailers
4. It helps the Scottish Nationalists, who have just introduced a similar measure in Scotland

Thank you very much

Sincerely
