Mandatory Compliance: "Pass" indicates that the bathing water achieved the mandatory standards. "Fail" indicates that the water failed the mandatory standards. The assessment is based on the number of ecoli exceedences (shown in brackets).

Guideline Compliance: "Pass" indicates that the bathing water achieved the guideline standards. "Fail" indicates that the water failed the guideline standards. The assessment is based on the number of ecoli and intestinal enterococci exceedences (shown in brackets) respectively.

 Name has been changed in 2013

 Newly designated in 2013

* Dartmouth Castle and Sugary Cove was closed for several weeks in the middle of the bathing season because of unsafe access. The Environment Agency was unable to collect enough samples to make an assessment of bathing water quality in line with Bathing Water Directive requirements.

Bathing water names amended in 2013

New name from 2012	Previous name
Whitecliff Bay	Whitecliffe Bay
Seaham Beach	Seaham Hall Beach
Seaham Hall Beach	Seaham Beach

The names of Seaham Beach and Seaham Hall Beach have been transposed to correct an error that was made when the beaches were designated as bathing waters.
