Dear

Thank you for your request of 9 April 2013 under the Freedom of Information Act (2000). Your exact request was:

“please supply a copy of the email obtained by jti from Australian Department of Health and Ageing. [page 11 advert in daily telegraph 8/4/13]”

We are interpreting your request as referring to the email that JTI recently published as an advertisement in various newspapers from the Department of Health to the Australian Government.

I can confirm that the Department holds this information, a copy of which is attached.

Please note that some of the information has been redacted under Section 40 of the FOI Act. This exemption relates to the protection of personal information, which would not otherwise be available in the public domain. The Department considers that this information, particularly the names of officials in the Department of Health who are not at Senior Civil Servant rank, is exempt from disclosure under section 40.

If this is not the information that you have requested, please inform us with the exact information you are seeking.

If you have any queries about this email, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to:

Head of the Freedom of Information Team
Department of Health
Room 317
Richmond House
79 Whitehall,
London
SW1A 2NS

Email: freedomofinformation@dh.gsi.gov.uk

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner (ICO) for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Department. The ICO can be contacted at:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Yours sincerely,

Freedom of Information Officer
