Dear Cheryl,

I am writing to you to look at ways in which the coalition can move forward in Wales in the current economic climate.

Finances are obviously tight and I list below a number of policies that could be adopted at little or no cost.

- Immediate Commission into devolving policing and justice to the National Assembly. Minimal cost.

I would be happy to meet with you to discuss these in further details if time could be found to do so.

I look forward to receiving your response.

With best wishes,

Roger Williams MP
Member of Parliament for Brecon and Radnorshire
