Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your email of 22nd February 2012. We have dealt with this under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked for statistics in relation to the number of vehicles which go through the SVA/IVA process each year, for Japanese import vehicles. We have provided the information requested from February 2009 to February 2012. Unfortunately the only way we can provide this information doesn't show different models of vehicles. However, the volumes for the various makes are presented on a monthly basis.

I have attached a spreadsheet with the information to the covering email.

If you are unhappy with the response provided, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

VOSA Corporate Office,
Berkeley House,
Croydon Street,
Bristol,
BS5 0DA

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk

giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to

An executive agency of the Department for Transport

oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.
