The topics covered in this letter are:

- Council Tax and Students – proposed amendments to the Council Tax (Discount Disregards) Order 1992

Council Tax and Students – proposed amendments to the Council Tax (Discount Disregards) Order 1992

Communities and Local Government has today issued a joint consultation paper, and associated draft guidance, with the Welsh Assembly Government, seeking views on proposed changes to the Council Tax (Discount Disregards) Order 1992 SI 1992/548 which applies in England and Wales.

This consultation relates to the treatment of people for council tax purposes who are resident in England or Wales but undertaking a full-time course of education with an educational establishment situated in another Member State of the EU.

We welcome your responses to this web-only consultation, which is available from our website at:

<http://www.communities.gov.uk/publications/localgovernment/counciltaxstudentsdiscount>

The consultation closes on 14 September 2010.

Responses for England should be sent to Mumuna Mumuni (preferably) by email to:

counciltax.consultations@communities.gsi.gov.uk and those for Wales to Gemma Smith at LGF1consultations@wales.gsi.gov.uk.
