

British Embassy
Skopje

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR DIVERSITY FELLOWSHIPS PROGRAMME TO THE UNITED KINGDOM

The British Embassy Skopje offers an opportunity for enthusiastic individuals to develop skills and knowledge by working alongside peers within relevant UK institutions and organisations.

If you are a media worker, human rights or civil society activist, researcher or analyst who believes that job-shadowing in organisations or institutions in the United Kingdom would benefit and inspire your work, the Diversity Fellowship Programme may be your choice.

Your stay can be from 2–4 weeks, in an organisation or institution where you will be able to do research and on-the-job learning and development.

Areas in which you can complete a fellowship are:

- Diversity and inclusion in society
- Human rights, including freedom of expression, media freedoms
- Civil society, lobbying, civic activism and policy development
- Development and influencing public policies through civil society and media involvement

If you are interested to apply you should submit:

- Your CV (no longer than 3 pages) outlining areas of work and past products (project work involvement, published texts, activism, lobby or consultancy work)
- Outline of objectives and activities for your fellowship in the UK (no longer than 2 pages)
- Narrative on how you will use the experience gained through the fellowship in your work upon return to Macedonia.

Interested applicants will be responsible for finding a UK based organisation which will host their fellowship placement and provide written confirmation of the placement by the organisation together with the application. The British Embassy does not provide 'placement service' – it is administered by each applicant.

The fellowship allowance will cover costs for visa, accommodation, one return ticket to the UK and a fixed allocated sum for meals and local transport during your stay.

The application process is open to individuals working in Macedonia only.

If you are interested to apply, send us your application documents with a subject Diversity Fellowship Application by email to

BEskopje.ProjectsOffice@fco.gov.uk

Application deadline is 31 January 2014.

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to an interview at the British Embassy in Skopje.

The deadline for completing the fellowships in the UK is June 2014.