

Business Forum on Tax and Competitiveness: Agenda – 23 April 2013

Item 1 – Welcome and introduction

Item 2 – Tax and reputation – improving transparency

In light of the G8 focus on transparency, forum members are invited to consider what information business could provide to tax administrations and how best to report this.

Following the BIAC statement, forum members might also like to discuss ideas for a voluntary business code of tax conduct.

The Exchequer Secretary will also provide an update on the Government's approach to the OECD BEPS work and forum members will have the opportunity to put forward their views on this work.

Item 3 – Where next on business taxation?

Commitments in the Corporate Tax Roadmap have been delivered and forum members are invited to discuss their views on where Government should target further reform.

Item 4 – Wrap up and Conclusion
