BIS New Construction Output Price Indices 1Q2013

The BIS Output Price Index for New Construction (2010): All New Construction (COP1) for 1st Quarter 2013 rose 0.4% on the previous quarter and by 2.3% on the same quarter a year earlier.

The quarter on quarter change resulted from rises in output prices in all sectors except Public Housing, where prices fell 0.3% (see table 1). The composition of the index was influenced by quarter-on-quarter changes in the proportions of volume of output. The proportion of Public Housing, Private Industrial and Private Commercial rose while the proportion of work in the Private Housing, Infrastructure and Public Non-Housing sectors remained unchanged (see table 2).

The 1st Quarter 2013 on 1st Quarter 2012 rise of 2.3% resulted from increases in output prices in all sectors except for Public Housing and Private Industrial where prices fell by 2.2% and 0.7% respectively. Price increases remain particularly strong in the Infrastructure and Private Commercial sectors (see table 1). The mix of the sectors in the index over the year was influenced by a rise in the proportion of output from the Infrastructure and Private Industrial sectors and a fall in the proportion of Public Non-Housing work (see table 2).

Table 1: BIS New Construction Output Price Indices 1Q 2013 percentage change:

Sector	Percentage change
	on year	on quarter
Public Housing	-2.2%	-0.3%
Private Housing	1.2%	0.3%
Infrastructure	3.2%	0.5%
Public Non Housing	2.6%	0.7%
Private Industrial	-0.7%	0.1%
Private Commercial	3.4%	0.7%
All New Work	2.3%	0.4%

2013	Q1 (R)	6%	23%	21%	14%	6%	32%	100%

The movement of the Output Price Indices generally reflects the movement in tender prices in previous periods.

BIS Construction Public Sector Tender Price Indices 1Q2013

The BIS Tender Price Index for Public Sector Non-Housing (PUBSEC) remains unchanged from the 4th Quarter 2012 and shows a rise of 1.7% compared to the 1st Quarter 2012.

The BIS Tender Price Index of Social Housing (TPISH) shows a rise of 0.5% compared with the previous quarter as well as for the same quarter a year earlier. The index shows that prices in this sector have remained steady since 2nd Quarter 2010, but are some 12% below their peak in 2nd Quarter 2008.

The BIS Tender Price Index of Road Construction (ROADCON) shows no change compared with the previous quarter and a rise of 1.1% compared with the same quarter a year earlier.

BIS Construction Resource Cost Indices 1Q2013

The resource costs indices in 1st Quarter 2013 show fairly stable costs in the building sectors, housing and non-housing, both showing a rise of 1.0% in the year since 1st Quarter 2012.

Costs in the infrastructure, both roads and infrastructure generally, have risen compared with the previous quarter but show modest increases in the year since 1st Quarter 2012. The BIS Resource Cost Index of Road Construction (ROCOS) rose 0.8% in the year to 1st Quarter 2013 and 1.2% on the quarter, while the BIS Resource Cost Index of Infrastructure (FOCOS) rose 0.5% on the year and rose 1.4% on the quarter.

Economic Background

BIS produce a monthly note on the economic background for construction, published with its Monthly Statistics of Buildings Materials and Components

Notes

Uses of Data

There are three types of indices which have different purposes and uses:

Tender Price Indices: Measure project construction prices to clients agreed at 'commit to construct'. The TPIs are produced primarily for use in estimating, cost-checking and fee negotiation on public sector construction works. They are used by the Office for National Statistics (ONS) to deflate construction new orders from current to constant prices and in the calculation of the OPIs.

Output Price Indices: Measure project construction prices paid by clients at the point that the work is carried out. The OPIs are produced primarily to deflate construction output from current to constant prices and are generally derived from TPIs modelled to sector output in previous quarters.

Resource Cost Indices: Measure the notional trend of input costs to a contractor in terms of increases in the cost of labour, materials and plant by application of the BCIS Price Adjustment Formulae Indices (PAFI) for Building (Series 3), Specialist Engineering (Series 3) and Civil Engineering (1990 Series) to cost models. The PAFI are based on ONS Producer Price Indices (PPIs). The RCIs are used for budgeting, estimating, tendering or paying for construction work.

Quality Information

For the Tender Price and Output Price Indices that are based on project indices, sample sizes are stated for each index.

For OPIs that are based on modelled TPIs, the inputs come from the RCIs and TPIs.

The RCIs are based on PPIs and published wage awards. Details of the PPIs are available on the ONS website

Related Statistics

ONS publish Producer Price Index \(PPI\), a monthly survey that measures the price changes of goods bought and sold by UK manufacturers and provides a key measure of inflation. This Statistical Bulletin contains a comprehensive selection of data on input and output index series. It contains PPIs for materials and fuels purchased, and output of manufacturing industry by broad sector and includes many construction materials.

ONS publish Construction Output statistics, a monthly series of the output of the construction industry in both the private and public sectors, and for both new work and repair and maintenance.

ONS publish Construction New Orders. This information relates to contracts for new construction work awarded to main contractors by clients in both the public and private sectors. Also included is speculative work, undertaken on the initiative of the firm, where no contract or order is awarded. The value of this work is recorded in the period when foundation works are started.

Revisions Policy

The revision policy for these indices can be found on the BIS Building Price and Cost Indices webpage.
