Subject: Tied Pubs.

May I add my name to those calling for Pub Tenancies to be given the opportunity to achieve a living wage, and not have to pay the absorbitant prices when purchasing their products direct from the Pubcos.Pubs,particularly in the rural areas are the lifeblood of their town or village and represent much more than just a drinking establishment.Surely,we should be encouraging businesses to thrive ,instead of having a constant turnover of licencees because they are unable to make a living. It is certainly time to "call time" on these outdated practices and allow our pubs to once more be the focal point of their communities.
