Dear Redacted

RE: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your email of 10 February in which you asked for the following:

"I would like to make a Freedom of Information request regarding communications between Ed Davey MP or political advisers working for Ed Davey MP and Sir Malcom Bruce MP in relation to competition in the domestic gas supply market. Specifically, I am interested in the details of any phone calls or emails or letters in January and February 2014.

I would like each phone call logged with a time stamp. I would also like to see any notes that were attached to these exchanges to set up the meeting. In the case of emails and letters, I would like to see the text of the messages."

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'), you have the right to:

- know whether we hold the information you require
- be provided with that information (subject to any exemptions under the Act which may apply).

I have carried out a search of our electronic and paper records and I have established that the Department does not hold any information within scope of your request.

Appeals procedure

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to the Information Rights Unit (foi@decc.gsi.gov.uk).
