FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

[REDACTED]

Further to your email sent on Friday 26th July, I wish to advise you that the Office of the Advocate General (OAG) does not have its own departmental buildings. OAG utilises by agreement with the Scottish Government (SG) both an area of their building in Victoria Quay and the SG IT system.

Accordingly OAG does not hold the information you have requested because it is not held by OAG in terms of the FOI Act section 3(2). We recommend that you direct your enquiry to the Scottish Government.

The link here will take you to their FOI website.

<http://www.scotland.gov.uk/About/Information/FOI>

If you are dissatisfied with the treatment of your request, you can ask OAG to conduct an internal review of its decision. The internal review will be conducted by someone other than the person who took the initial decision. Requests for internal review should be addressed to the Information Officer, Office of the Solicitor to the Advocate General, Victoria Quay, Edinburgh, EH6 6QQ.

If you remain dissatisfied with how your request has been handled by OAG following its internal review, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

Details of the complaints procedure can be found here - http://www.ico.gov.uk/complaints/freedom_of_information.aspx or by writing to Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely
