

Transforming DVLA Services

List of respondents: Business and other organisations

Respondents name by company

On 13 December 2011, the DVLA launched a public consultation called Transforming DVLA Services. The objective of the consultation was to invite views from the public and stakeholders which the DVLA could use to develop its services to meet customer needs.

Of the 1,015 received there were 423 company or organisation names provided, 588 individuals names and 4 that did not disclose their identity.

This document provides a list of the company names that contributed to the consultation. Where DVLA received more than one response from each company, the duplicates have been removed.
