The deceased is described on the death certificate as being the widow of William Hammond and being born on 31st March 1904 in Scotland. Can you confirm that all these details are correct and do you have any information relating to the deceased's maiden name?

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division ("the Division") under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division holds some of the information that you have requested.

The information provided on our website is correct according to the information provided by the death certificate. As the death was registered by a third party, the Treasury Solicitor cannot confirm the accuracy of the information contained within the document.

The Division has information that the deceased's former name was Martin in 1939. However, it could not be confirmed if this was her maiden name.
