Dear Redacted

RE: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your email of 19 February in which you asked for the following:

"I would like to request the following:- I would like to see any available briefings, minutes, correspondence, emails or other documents relating to Mark Prisk's September 2013 meeting with Barratt, Bellway, Redrow et al to discuss "House Building."

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'), you have the right to:

- know whether we hold the information you require
- be provided with that information (subject to any exemptions under the Act which may apply).

I have carried out a search of our electronic and paper records and I have established that this Department does not hold any information within scope of your request.

Appeals procedure

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to the Information Rights Unit (foi@decc.gsi.gov.uk).
