

Ministry of Justice Special Advisors gifts and hospitality

Quarterly information 1 January - 31 March 2011

GIFTS RECEIVED<sup>1</sup>

Nil returns for: David Hass, Kathryn Laing

HOSPITALITY RECEIVED<sup>2</sup>

Date of hospitality	Name of organisation	Type of hospitality received
David Hass
12 January 2011	The Sun	Lunch
9 February 2011	Portland Communications	Lunch
16 February 2011	Rethink	Lunch
Kathryn Laing
9 February 2011	CBI Public Services Strategy Board	Dinner

<sup>1</sup> The general principle is that gifts must only be accepted in exceptional circumstances and which are appropriate to the circumstances, for example offered in the course of a normal business meeting or by a delegation of an overseas government; are modest and appropriate, for example a token item such as a promotional pen or key-ring, or routine hospitality such as coffee and biscuits, or a light working lunch.

<sup>2</sup> The general principle is that hospitality must only be accepted in exceptional circumstances and which are appropriate to the circumstances, for example offered in the course of a normal business meeting or by a delegation of an overseas government; are modest and appropriate, or routine hospitality such as coffee and biscuits, or a light working lunch. Does not include offers of hospitality which were declined.