NOTES AND DEFINITIONS

1. Candidates' election expenses (Tables 1, 4 and 6)

Candidates' election expenses are expenses incurred before, during or after an election on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of the election. They are subject to a statutory maximum for each candidate: at the 1987 Parliamentary general election this was £3,370 plus an additional 3.8 pence for every entry in the register of electors to be used at the election (as first published) for county constituencies or £3,370 plus an additional 2.9 pence for every entry in the register of electors to be used at the election (as first published) for borough constituencies. This maximum is not required to cover the candidate's personal expenses (Section 76 of the Representation of the People Act 1983).

(a) Personal expenses	The personal expenses incurred by the candidate, including reasonable travelling expenses and the reasonable expenses of living at hotels or elsewhere for the purposes of and in relation to the election. There is no statutory limit on a candidate's personal expenses but any excess over £600 is paid by the candidate's election agent (Section 74 of the Representation of the People Act 1983, as amended by Section 14(2) of the Representation of the People Act 1985).
(b) Expenses subject to the legal maximum:
Agents	Fees paid to election agents, sub-agents and polling agents
Clerks etc.	Payment for clerks and messengers
Printing, stationery etc.	The expenses of printing, of advertising, of publishing, issuing and distributing addresses and notices, and of stationery, postage, telecommunications, etc.
Public meetings	Expenses of holding public meetings, including payments to speakers
Committee rooms	Cost of hire of committee rooms
Miscellaneous matters	All expenses in respect of miscellaneous matters not separately specified
Total	The total expenses of each candidate, excluding personal expenses

2. Electors, votes polled, postal voting and rejected ballot papers (Tables 2–6)

Number of electors

The number of electors shown is the number of parliamentary electors, including attainers, on the register used at the election (as first published). The figures given in this publication differ from those given in Electoral Statistics 1987 (Office of Population Censuses and Surveys, Series EL No. 14) for about 100 constituencies as a result of:

- (a) boundary changes which came into effect when the election was called;
- (b) proposed boundary changes which were, in the event, not made but were incorrectly anticipated in the figures sent to OPCS, or;
- (c) errors which came to light after the figures originally submitted to OPCS were published in OPCS Monitor EL 87/1

Most of the differences are small although in ten constituencies affected by boundary changes the number of electors involved exceeds 1,000 (details are given in the Introduction to Electoral Statistics 1987). The net effect of the differences is that this publication shows about 400 less electors than Electoral Statistics 1987.

Number of valid votes counted

The total number of ballot papers, including postal ballot papers, included at the start of the count less ballot papers rejected in the count.

Valid votes counted as a percentage of registered electors

The number of valid votes counted as a percentage of the number of registered parliamentary electors (as first published). The use of the number of electors as first published leads to an under-estimate of the actual “turn-out” – the proportion of eligible electors who voted – because it includes some people who had not reached the age of 18 by the time of the election and some people who had died. This under-estimation will be offset, to a minor extent, by the omission of late additions to the register.

Number of polling districts

Number of polling districts into which the constituency has been divided by the local authority (England and Wales) or the Returning Officer (Scotland), under Section 18 of the Representation of the People Act 1983. Polling districts for Northern Ireland constituencies are those for the time being established under the law relating to local elections within the meaning of Section 130 of the Electoral Law Act (Northern Ireland) 1962.

Number of polling stations

Number of polling stations provided for the use of electors. A single room or booth may contain one or more polling stations, each of which is provided with separate equipment, presiding officer and clerks as described in Rule 29 of the parliamentary election rules, Schedule 1 of the Representation of the People Act 1983.

Number of postal voters lists

Number of postal voters on the absent voters list and on the list of postal proxies.

Number of covering envelopes returned before close of poll

Number of covering envelopes received by the Acting Returning Officer before the close of the poll, excluding any returned either as undelivered or as spoilt (under Regulation 90 of the Representation of the People Regulations 1986).

Number of cases in which the covering envelope or its contents were marked ‘rejected’

The postal votes which were not included at the start of the count.

Total number of ballot papers included at the start of the count

Includes ordinary ballot papers and postal ballot papers, which are counted together. This figure is the sum of the number of valid votes counted and the number of ballot papers rejected in the count.

Ballot papers rejected in the count

Those ballot papers rejected for want of the official mark, voting for more than one candidate, writing or mark by which the voter could be identified and unmarked or void for uncertainty.

3. Constituency details (Tables 4 and 5)

Name of constituency

Constituencies are listed in alphabetical order within each of the four countries in the United Kingdom. The type of constituency, borough^(B) or county^(C) is indicated after the constituency name, since the type of constituency regulates the legal maximum for a candidate’s expenses.

Names of candidates

The names of candidates are listed in order of the number of votes polled. The names of candidates who forfeited their deposits are marked with an asterisk.(*)

Description of candidates

The descriptions of the candidates as entered on the nomination paper and printed on the ballot paper.

Votes polled for each candidate

The number of votes polled by each candidate exclusive of rejected votes.

(1) Figures for the elections from July 1945 to October 1974 were taken from "British Electoral Facts 1832-1980" compiled and edited by F.W.S. Craig of Parliamentary Research Services, Chichester.

(2) The age limit for voting eligibility was lowered from 21 to 18 between the 1966 and 1970 elections.

(3) The election took place on the same day as local government elections which led to a substantial increase in the number of rejections for voting for more than one candidate.

Figure 1

1987 Parliamentary General Election
Candidates (1) election expenses (excluding personal expenses) as a percentage of the legal maximum to which they were subject.

(1) 15 candidates who failed to submit returns and 2 candidates who exceeded the legal maximum for their constituencies are excluded.
